If you wish to go back and read the entry, it can be accessed via the [OTW pAGENT] page. -++ '''OTW''' == '''Open The WEB''' is an organization dedicated to promoting fan-created [[ThemedOutfits]] for the [[Final Fantasy]] series. Our main goal is to promote original content, while allowing the community to collaborate on it. The purpose of this website is to be a ''spoilsport free'' launching pad where users can showcase their ideas and to collaborate on creating a place where this content is actively reviewed. Its design will also provide a chance for the community to discuss the merits of different FF merchandise and to find common ground, where different opinions are considered and appreciated. We want this to be a place where all FF fans can join the community, without having to worry that their work will be buried. Unfortunately, this is still a young project and we're still looking for both original artwork and new community members to help create this space. 5ec8ef588b
