There is a download link in the footer. Before installation, we need to set it up in the system. If antivirus software is installed, uninstall antivirus. If not installed, install. We will need a license file. To do this, find the license file in the folder with the program. Open in notepad and copy its contents, paste it into a text editor. Click the menu File-Save as. After selecting the license file, click OK. Download the activation file. Open it and click the Open button. After opening, click OK. Close the program. Installation completed. Working with the program Press the "Open" button.
