Original Earliest RPG We have decided to refresh and bring out the original classic elements that dominate early RPGs. We have refrained from using the more recent RPG features and tuning our game design toward becoming one of the most enjoyable RPG games.

Online Play We support multiplayer online play through the Internet. We have not only tried to broaden the range of online multiplayer maps with various locations such as dungeons, towns, towers, and bridges for you to play, but also try to add more features such as character occupations that increase your combat ability and temporarily restoring them.

An Epic Adventure Stretched Across the Lands Between We have used the traditional RPG and simplified it to expand our imagination. We have refrained from expanding multiplayer maps and limiting the scope.

Customization of the Appearance of Various Items and Equipment We have tried to create the various kinds of weapons and armor for you to customize the appearance to your liking.
