You are no longer playing a game where you are required to do little. Every character has a different class and has their own strengths and weakness. The interface is easy to understand and does not take up a lot of space. When you encounter a situation where your character can use things such as a spell, the game displays icons to indicate what is being used. It's simple and clear, so anyone can enjoy it. > ADDITIONAL FUN AND EXCITEMENT THROUGH QUANTUM RADIO: Turn-based multiplayer battle RPG contains a variety of exciting elements that are enhanced by using the quantum radio. By successfully completing these actions, you can change the outcome of battles. > ACTION RPG WITH A VAST WORLD: Rise as an NPC to fight enemies, and explore a vast open world. Hiking through vast fields or diving into dungeons full of traps and monsters, there are various challenges waiting to be overcome. With a lot of points of interest to visit in a vast world, the play is made more fun. > BATTLE SYSTEM WITH FULL FEELING: Each character has a unique class. You can freely choose which class to play. You can learn about this character, to gain knowledge about their characteristics. You will face battles, and there will be a large variety of ways to defeat enemies and overcome situations. Additionally, the map of the game is designed to work as an RPG, and you can enjoy your adventure. > A WORLD WHERE YOU CAN CHOOSE WHAT YOU WANT: Want to visit a place where the story is not ended at the end of the game? Feel free to choose which path you want to take and enjoy the different situations. The game is prepared to allow you to leave your own footprints in the game. There is no such feeling bff6bb2d33
