StealFromYourPlanet (TFYSP) 04-18-12, 10:05 AM I played a play through of Space Fight yesterday after getting a new keyboard and mouse for Christmas. The controls are pretty simple. Click on the X to fire at the enemy and the Y to go your own ship. Click on the triangle that looks like an arrow to strafe left or right. The game starts off very easy, but gets a little harder as you progress. You will die a lot at first I am sure, but you can use your lifebar to revive yourself from your ship. I played this game on a 1680x1050 monitor with the refresh rate set to 60hz. Here's a link to the official Space fight website with a pretty good walkthrough of how to play the game.
